Your Holiness:

I come to you as a leader of a non-Christian micronation, the Mabruenian-Nicene Commonwealth, humbly seeking your condemnation of a holy war declared against us by the Kingdom of San Donia, the Kingdom of Turisa, and the Princely Republic of Tresca. These micronations are using Christian rhetoric to justify defaming and harassing us and I greatly respect your actions against President Donald Trump in a similar vein - the Iran War is not holy, nor is the war declared on us by San Donia and Tresca.

I would like to humbly request a statement from your office that I may post as a public announcement in our servers, as my friends and I feel threatened by members of your flock, and as their shepherd, I feel a response from you, or at least a response from the Archbishop of New York and Bishop of Phoenix (the relevant prelates) on this matter would put my mind at ease.

With every good wish to Your Holiness, I am sincerely yours, Alexandra I Irikladis

Alexandra I Irikladis
