A STATEMENT FROM PALAIS FHLEAMAINN

Residents of Mabruenia,

It has come to my attention as your current reigning monarch and sovereign over the Mabrueneian kingdom that a threat to our nation's safety and security diplomatically has arisen. Some nations, that are staying unnamed for now, are plotting scare-tactics and defamation campaigns in order to erase the Mabrueneian Kingdom, The Mabrueneian-Nicene Commonwealth, and its allies from the micronational community.

I want to make it known that under the Treason and Disloyalty Act, levying war against the Gaelic Kingdom of Mabruenia and adhering to her enemies is treason against the Crown and kingdom. Additionally, it is an offense to obtain information in order to use it to threaten the safety of the kingdom or its civilians.

Beyond our kingdom, anyone found to be harassing any civilian or government member of the Mabrueneian Kingdom will be sent a letter before action if it is deemed doable, and if it continues, legal action will be pursued.

Amara Fleming, Queen of Mabruenia
